Objectives

The objectives of the 2019 SA & NT Rural Media Awards are to:

- Recognise a sustained commitment to rural journalistic and photographic excellence during 2019.
- Encourage high professional standards among journalists and photographers who report on rural South Australia and the Northern Territory.
- Encourage metropolitan, regional and specialist media outlets to publish and broadcast material which promotes rural industries, people and issues.
- Encourage and provide professional development opportunities for emerging young rural journalists..

The 2019 SA & NT Rural Media Awards are an initiative of Rural Media South Australia and proudly supported by Rural Business Support, the Royal Agricultural and Horticultural Society of SA, FULLER, Primary Industries and Regions SA, South Australian Horticulture Services, Superior Selections and AgCommunicators.

Judging

A panel of four judges will assess all entries on an equal basis.

Judging will be conducted in November. The Award will be presented on Friday 29th November 2019, at a special RMSA luncheon meeting.

The judging panel will present the 2019 Rural Journalist Awards to those individuals whose nominations, in the judges' opinion, demonstrate a sustained commitment to rural journalistic excellence and effort during the period covered by the Awards.

The judging panel will select the 2019 Rural Journalist of the Year from the winners of the five Award categories. Please note that the emphasis is on rural rather than regional.

The judging panel's decision shall be final and no correspondence shall be entered into. RMSA reserves the right to present other certificates in addition to the major prizes.

Best Royal Adelaide Show Story Award

An award of $500 will be presented for the best story about the 2019 Royal Adelaide Show. This award is sponsored by the Royal Agricultural & Horticultural Society of SA Inc and includes one year's membership of the Society. The story must have been published or broadcast between 1st January 2019 and 31st October 2019. The story may be separate to an entry for the 2019 Rural Journalist Awards, or form part of that entry. Please specify the title of the story on the entry form.

Presentation of Awards Friday 29th November 2019

Terms and Conditions

Any journalist working in the print or electronic media who reports on rural issues in South Australia or Northern Territory is eligible to enter.

All material to be judged in the Awards must have been published or broadcast in South Australia or the Northern Territory between 1st January 2019 and 31st October 2019.

The 2019 Rural Journalist of the Year will be selected from the winners of the five Award categories. This person cannot enter the following year, but will be invited to join the Judging Panel.

Members of the judging panel and their families are ineligible to enter. All entries will remain the property of Rural Media SA (RMSA), which shall retain discretionary power over future use.

Entries must include:

- Three individual articles/items published or broadcast in the prescribed period. The articles/items may be unrelated or form part of a series which examines a single rural topic or issue.
- Radio, Television and Online entries must be available for viewing or audio replay at nominated web addresses. Print entries must be provided as scanned pdf files.
- A brief biography of no more than 300 words, in MS Word format.
- A brief explanation of no more than 300 words in MS Word format about the material submitted for the awards, including information such as why the entrant selected the articles/items and their significance.
- Declaration, biography, running-sheet and explanation in MS Word format.

Entries must also be accompanied by a declaration indicating:

- When the articles/items were published/broadcast.
- Where the articles/items were published/broadcast.

E-mail submission of this documentation will be accepted as a legitimate declaration. Individuals may nominate themselves or be nominated by others, with the nominee's consent.

There is no entry fee for these Awards. Due to the generosity of our sponsors and supporters, entry is free. All entrants are also eligible to receive free membership of RMSA for the 2019/2020 year.

Entry criteria for 'Best Rural Journalist – Regional Print'

Entries will only be accepted from print journalists who reside in regional areas of South Australia or the Northern Territory and who report for regionally based print publications. This Award is not open to journalists who report for statewide, Territory wide, national or capital city based publications.
